

Assignment 4: Professional Study Programme

1. Incident of Note Write-Up Template

Summary of Incident:

This could be any incident that occurs within your teaching which causes you to think deeply or rethink an assumption you held previously about any aspect of teaching, relating to any topics covered in your training and research.

Background to or context of the Incident:

Wider information linked to your reading, research and/or discussion:

Application to your teaching practice:

Related Teaching Standard(s):

- 1)
- 2)
- 3)

Self-evaluation:

Specific areas of learning this incident ties to and your justification or rationale of how this evidences your development in it.

2. Incident of Note Write-Up

Summary of Incident:

This could be any incident that occurs within your teaching which causes you to think deeply or rethink an assumption you held previously about any aspect of teaching, relating to any topics covered in your training and research.

Background to or context of the Incident:

Wider information linked to your reading, research and/or discussion:

Application to your teaching practice:

Related Teaching Standard(s):

- 1)
- 2)
- 3)

Self-evaluation:

Specific areas of learning this incident ties to and your justification or rationale of how this evidences your development in it.

3. Incident of Note Write-Up

Summary of Incident:

This could be any incident that occurs within your teaching which causes you to think deeply or rethink an assumption you held previously about any aspect of teaching, relating to any topics covered in your training and research.

Background to or context of the Incident:

Wider information linked to your reading, research and/or discussion:

Application to your teaching practice:

Related Teaching Standard(s):

- 1)
- 2)
- 3)

Self-evaluation:

Specific areas of learning this incident ties to and your justification or rationale of how this evidences your development in it.

