Parent Permission for Video Recorded or Online Zoom Lesson Observations for Musicians of Change: PGCEi in Group Instrument Teaching

Dear Parent/ Carer,

The Music Masters 'Musicians of Change' (PGCEi in Group Instrument Learning) is a Masters Level Teaching qualification in partnership with Birmingham City University. This requires student teachers on the course to have their teaching observed and analyse their current teaching. The observations and analysis are used as part of a written coursework submitted as part of the course.

Some PGCEi students may record or have their teaching observed either online via a Zoom call or being videoed so that they are able to complete their qualification. For this reason your teacher may ask for your lesson to be recorded so that they can share the lesson with their mentor. For this we will need your permission for your child's lesson to be recorded and shared with their mentor and/ or in a piece of written coursework.

How will the video be used?

The video itself will be uploaded as an unlisted video on youtube on your teacher's private account, which means it cannot be searched for or available to the public. Only you the parent or carer, teacher and mentor or marker will be able to view it if the link is shared with them. The video will then be deleted from your teacher's youtube account once the observation feedback and marking has been completed and the link will no longer be available. Using youtube in this way means that the video cannot be downloaded.

If you have any further questions about this process, do not hesitate to get in contact with us at pgcei@musicmasters.org.uk - we are more than happy to help.

Thank you and we appreciate you support for the training of our PGCEi students.
